

The FCC is totally out of control. Since when did the United States become a communist country? On what basis does the FCC staff decide what is indecent and what isn't? Apparantly it is based on the testimony of uptight religious fanatics. Well, as an American citizen who votes and pays taxes, it is disillusioning to have my choices of entertainment made for me by far right wackos lead by president Bush.